BROAD RIPPLEMIDDLE SCHOOL PTSA BYLAWS 2024-2025

Article I: Name

The name of this organization is the Broad Ripple Middle School PTSA, Indianapolis, Indiana. It is a local PTA/PTSA organized under the authority of the Indiana Congress of Parents and Teachers, a branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (the National PTA).

Article II: Purposes

Section A. The purposes of the Broad Ripple Middle School PTSA, in common with those of the National PTA and the Indiana PTA, are:

1. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, places of worship, and throughout the community.
2. To raise the standards of home life;
3. To advocate for laws that further the education, physical and mental health, welfare, and safety of children and youth;
4. To promote the collaboration and engagement of families and educators in the education of children and youth;
5. To engage the public in united effects to secure the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social well-being of all children and youth; and
6. To advocate for fiscal responsibility regarding public tax dollars in public education funding.

Section B. The purposes of the National PTA, the Indiana PTA and the Broad Ripple Middle School PTSA are promoted through an educational program directed toward parents, teachers, and the general public; are developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and are governed and qualified by the basic policies set forth in Article III.

Section C. The organization is organized exclusively for the charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter "Internal Revenue Code").

Article III: Basic Policies

Section A. The following are basic policies of the Broad Ripple Middle School PTSA in common with those of the National PTA and the Indiana PTA:

1. The organization shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
2. The organization shall work with the schools to provide quality education for all children and youth and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process establishing school policy, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to the boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.
3. The organization shall work to promote the health and welfare of children and youth and shall seek to promote collaboration between parents, schools, and the community at large.
4. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.
5. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
6. Upon the dissolution of the organization, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the organization, the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, or organizations that have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and whose purposes are in accordance with those of National PTA.
7. The organization or members in their official capacities shall not, directly or indirectly, participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.

Article IV: Relationship with National PTA and Indiana PTA

Section A. This local PTA/PTSA shall be organized and chartered under the direct authority of the Indiana PTA in the area in which this local PTA/PTSA functions, in conformity with such rules and regulations, not in conflict with the National PTA Bylaws, as the Indiana PTA may in its bylaws prescribe. The Indiana PTA shall issue to this local PTA/PTSA an appropriate charter evidencing the due organization and good standing of this local PTA/PTSA. A local PTA/PTSA in good standing is one which:
